It was com-parable, he said, to the utterances of "Tom Taggart of Indiana, to his fol-lowers, eighty of whom pleaded guilty Tuesday to the crime of political corruption," to "the orders issued by Murphy to his satellites in Tammany Hall to follow the dictates of the captain regardless of the dictates of conor judgment." "It is a remarkable speech," said

Senator Borah. "Its purpose and purport cannot be mistaken or misunderstood. It is a most virulent attach upon one of the great political parties of this country by the chief magistrate of the nation, a party in whose traditions millions of his countrymen take great pride in whose policies they devoutly and patriotically believe. It not only challenges the wisdom of its not only challenges the wisdom in the leaders, but it assails the intelligence and patriotism of the rank and file. All this is done at a time when our country has a sore need of united wisdom and patriotism. The people were not prepared for such a speech at time. "Mr. President, we accept the challenge. While opposing no legislation which we deem for the public good, we will hold ourselves perfectly free to oppose in all proper ways, and to the full extent of our ability that which we deem to be unwise. Under-standing that our chief magistrate prefers the leadership of a party to a chief magistracy of an entire people, we shall not need to be reminded of that fact again. Believing in the policles of our party, believing in the in-telligence and patriotism of its voters, we shall without any misgivings as to our ultimate purposes, seek to ad-vance the one and make no mistake as to the defense of the other. BUILDING CHARACTER

JAMES W. ELLIOTT has this to say in regard to CHARACTER BUILDING-"EVERY little success, every time you make good-You "Character and Industry-those are the words-the keynote to

"Character and Industry—those are the words—the keyhote to happiness, peace and success. All things come to the fellow who within himself is a Real Man. I say this without the least touch of theological sentiment. It is a plain, straight-from-the-heart truth—Found in the Crucible of Experience—and I give it to You that it may help you in your fight for Personal Betterment. "And as I have said before, Working on the basis of Truth, in the line with Progress, gives You STRENGTH; and the effect on Yourself is even greater than the effect on the other fellow, for You are RIGHT—and when RIGHT and POWER meet, Failure makes for the storm cellar."
